GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

WHEREAS

The Atom Hardware and services offered by Igloocy srl, (hereinafter referred to as Igloocy, for the sake of brevity) are designed to satisfy the needs of the largest possible number of clients. Igloocy, in accordance with the obligation to inform and advise its customers, has presented, to the Client, a commercial proposal and/or the documentation explaining the Atom Hardware and the related software packages, which the Client declares to have read. It is a responsibility of the Client, particularly on the basis of this information, to make sure that the Hardware, and the related services offered by Igloocy, are compliant with the specific needs and requirements of the Client. To this purpose, before signing the Agreement, the Client can ask Igloocy for any supplementary information and/or attend a demonstration of the Atom Hardware, after which, the Client shall recognize to having been properly informed regarding the above mentioned products. Any other possible specifications or documents prepared by the Clients, which may indicate any other additional requests, will not be considered in any case by Igloocy to the purpose of the Agreement, unless there is an expressed consent of Igloocy before signing the Agreement, with the understanding that any possible specifications agreed upon, or any additional requests will be attached to the Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, THE PARTIES HEREBY AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

ARTICLE 1. DEFINITIONS

To the purpose of the implementation of these General Terms and Conditions, the words and expressions in upper case have the meaning indicated as follows, both in their singular and in their plural form.

Technical Prerequisites	Indicate the last version of the list of the characteristics of the hardware device with the operating specifications required, with the list, where present, of the external services that are needed for the proper operation of the system. The Tehcnical Prerequisites may be modified from time to time by Igloocy and the last updated version will be available on the Igloocy website, which is constantly accessible at www.atomapp.cloud or at any other web address that Igloocy will communicate to the Client. It is a responsibility of the Client to verify the minimum requirements and the related external services, if present, that are needed to the proper operation of the system. Furthermore, it is a responsibility of the Client to update their digital technologies, their hardware and software according to the possible changes made to the Technical Prerequisites.
Service	Indicates the assistance and/or maintenance services provided by Igloocy to the Client in relation to the Hardware or the services as descrive in the Terms of Service.

ARTICLE 2. ACCEPTANCE OF THE AGREEMENT - PURPOSES

2.1. Acceptance of the Agreement

It is presumed that the Client has read the Agreement and has duly accepted it unreservedly.
The agreement is considered accepted from the day after the furthest date between the date of the signing of the order form and the date of the signing of the SEPA Direct Debit Mandate or, when the Client places an order online, by referring to these General Terms and Conditions and acknowledging the acceptance of the entire Agreement.

Any possible changes to these General Terms and Conditions for Hardware, Third Party Software and Ancillary Services must be duly accepted and subscribed by the Parties. Should the parties not do so, any changes or alterations made to the Form section of the Agreement, (that is, "The Order Form", the "Description of the ordered Items") will have to be considered null and ineffective.

The Agreement can be accepted and signed remotely (by electronic means) by the Client. The Client, in this case, recognizes that any faxes which display the signature of one of the Client's representatives or of authorized people, which are received by Igloocy constitute evidence of a valid agreement, and can therefore be deemed valid by Igloocy. The acceptance of the agreement via electronic means has the same evidentiary value, between the Parties, of a paper agreement. The computerized records stored in the archives of the Parties are kept following reasonable protection measures and constitute a valid evidence of the communication between the Parties. The archiving of the contract documents is made on a secure e durable support that is suitable to be exhibited as evidence.

2.2. Object

The General Terms and Conditions regulate the terms and conditions on the basis of which Igloocy will provide the Client with Harware and/or any Third Party Software and/or any possible related Service that is mentioned in the Agreement.

ARTICLE 3. EFFECTIVE DATE – DURATION

The Agreement is valid from the date of the signing. The Client has the right to permanently use the software installed on the hardwaredevices purchased from Igloocy and indicated in the order form, consistent with the technical upgrades provided at the conditions set out in this agreement.

Igloocy, at any time during the course of the provision of the Service to the Client, (even during the Initial Period), can communicate to the Client, with at least 1 (one) year notice, their decision to discontinue the Service in reference to certain Hardware or Third Party Software. Such discontinuance will be effective exclusively with reference to the Service indicated in the communication from Igloocy, and will not compromise the provision, from Igloocy, of any Service in relation to any other Hardware and Third Party Software.
PROVISIONS RELATED TO THE HARDWARE

ARTICLE 4. DELIVERY – INSTALLATION

4.1. Unless otherwise indicated, the ordered Hardware will have to be delivered to the address given in the "Order Form" (header: Name of the Client and address) or in the online order form.

4.2. The Client will be the sole responsible for the installation of the Hardware and its configuration. The registration and/or the purchase of external services (where present), needed for the operation are under the responsibility of the Client.

4.3. If the Hardware is in conformity with the Agreement, the Client will accept it on delivery. In any case, the Hardware will be considered irrevocably accepted unreservedly from the Client unless the Client, within 14 (fourteen) days of delivery, communicates, in writing, to Igloocy their right of withdrawal. Furthermore, the Client will have the right to enjoy the legal guarantees as per art. 17. After the 14 (fourteen) days of delivery, the refusal of a supply from the Client, if not motivated by faults and defects as per art. 17, will have no effect and Igloocy will have the right to require the Client to pay the total amount of the order.

4.4. Igloocy will remain the owner of the Hardware until the Client has paid the whole amount (including the capital and related expenses). The risk of losing the Hardware is passed to the Client in the moment the product is handed to the carrier.

PROVISIONS RELATED TO THIRD PARTY SOFTARE

ARTICOLE 5. RIGHTS GRANTED

5.1 The Third Party Software provided to the Client as pursuant to this agreement remain a property of the third party provider. The Client is not transferred any property right on Third Party Software.

5.2 As pursuant to the provisions set out in article 64-ter by Regulation 22 apruk 1941 no. 633 (s.c. "copyright Law"), the author has the right to correct any possible mistakes in Third Party Software.

5.3 The Client will abstain from any correction of mistakes, any change, any adaptation or translation of the Software.

Within the scope of the rights granted by Igloocy to the Client, the Client undertakes to not violate, in any way, whether directly or indirectly, the property rights of the Software installed. Consequently, the Client will particularly abstain from:

- Using the Software in a way that is not compliant with its purpose and with the conditions set out in the Agreement.
- Deleting any indication related to the copyright, to the trademarks or to any intellectual property right.
- Realizing any copies or representation of the Software in whatever form, particularly through modification or inclusion in other software or software packages and/or any modification of the Documentation;
- Any copy or partial or total backup of the software installed in the hardware device purchased
- Making any translation, adaptation, arrangement or modification to the Third Party Software;
- Providing third parties, for any reason, directly or indirectly, and distributing and commercializing the Software with any modality (transfer, rental, loan, storage, shared use, "application service provider", etc.), and for any reason, unless there is a prior written communication from Igloocy.
- Disclosing any related content; and
- Transferring, for any reason, their right of use.

The client guarantees the compliance, of their personnel and their Users, with these provisions.

5.4 The Client is aware that any use that is against the intellectual property rights of the Software purchased, as granted pursuant to this article, exposes the Client to the immediate termination of the right to use the software purchased under this agreement, and to the liability in tort, and/or criminal liability for the violation of the copyright. In any case, the Client remains liable for any violation of the above mentioned obligations whether they are caused by their own deeds or by those of their employees, service providers or any other subject that acts on their behalf.

ARTICLE 6 DELIVERY – INSTALLATION

6.1 The Client commits to use the hardware device purchased and reported in the order form according to the specific indications received by Igloocy.

6.2 Igloocy remains the owner of the hardware and of the software installed within, as well as of all the related Documentation, until the Client has fully paid for everything (including the capital and any other related expense). The Client shall bear the risk of any loss, destruction and any liability linked to any type of damage on the items delivered. Cliente assume il rischio di ogni perdita, danno, distruzione e ogni responsabilità connessa a qualsiasi tipo di danno sugli articoli consegnati;

ARTICLE 7 USE OF THIRD PARTY SOFTWARE AND SERVICES

The Client is the sole responsible for the use and the management (registrations, costs , configurations) of the Third Party Services needed, where present, to the functioning of the device purchased. The employment of the results obtained by the Client and by their Users through the operation of Third Party Software is under the exclusive control and supervision of the Client. Furthermore, the Client will be the sole responsible in relation to:

- Malfunction of external software. Igloocy shall not, in any case, be held responsible for any operational malfunctioning directly ascribable to the external software or services needed for the operation. Igloocy commits, anyway, within the limits of the problems, to identify, in case of issues, alternatives, or to find solutions which, through the internal update, grant the recovery of the system's functioning.
- Compliance with the Technical Prerequisites (present and future) to the purpose of avoiding detrimental consequences (such as slow processing timing, blocks/damages, alteration of the Client's data or other negative and un wanted consequences). Igloocy shall never be held liable for any damages suffered by the Client because of a non-compliant installation or an erroneous configuration of the system.
- Any possible consequences deriving from the Client modifying related installation or the related environment;
- Any configuration of the Third Party software and/or Services, including the deriving malfunctioning or breakage of the device purchased.
- Any damage to the devices that can be linked to an improper configuration that is not conducted in accordance with the specifications of the product.

The Client recognizes that Igloocy is not responsible for the quality, the availability, the reliability of the Telecommunication networks (independent of the nature of such networks) or for how the data transfer or the access to the Internet can be influenced by such networks, even when the provider of the Internet service has been recommended by Igloocy. Furthermore, Igloocy shall never be held liable, in any way, for any possible damage suffered by the Client and deriving from:

- An employment of Third Party Software that is not compliant with (i) the Documentation that accompanies the Third Party Software, (ii) the Agreement or (iii) any instruction that Cegid has given to the Client regarding such employment ;
- An employment of Third Party Software together with another software and/or hardware that is not compatible or non compliant with the Technical Prerequisites; or
- Any operation conducted by a third party in relation to the Third Party Software that has not been previously authorized by Igloocy.

During the interventions of Igloocy, the Client will be the keeper of the hardware, of the software packages, of the Client's data and of the files, programs and/or databases.

ARTICLE 8 CONTROL

In case the Client communicates to Igloocy that there is a malfunctioning of the hardware device purchased as resulting from the Order Form, Igloocy, prior to proper verification, even through the assistance service, might require the shipping of the device via courier to their lab for the due inspection. Should an actual malfunctioning linked to flaws or conformity defects be actually ascertained, any restoration or substitution expenses, in case of the application of art. 17 of this agreement, will be paid by Igloocy, otherwise, the expenses due for the maintenance intervention will be chargeable to the Client prior to quotation being sent to them.

The Client commits to actively cooperate to the controls, particularly granting Igloocy access to all the relevant information, and providing the necessary means to conduct the inspection. Furthermore, the Client recognizes that any possible expenses they might incur during the conduction of the inspection will be chargeable exclusively to the Client.

ARTICLE 9 FRAUD PROTECTION MEASURES
The Client guarantees that they will use the Third Party Software provided by Cegid in compliance with the laws and the regulation applicable, particularly on the matter of taxes.

PROVISIONS RELATED TO THE SERVICE

ARTICLE 10 SERVICES
10.1 Igloocy guarantees technical assistance for possible malfunctioning of the devices. Particularly, via telephone contact or via any other means of communication, the assistance request will be examine and the client will be given operational indications in order to remove the criticalities. In case of impossibility to restore the functioning of the device via telephone assistance with Igloocy's assistance service, the procedure provided by art.8 for the shipping of the devices   and the inspection at the Igloocy lab will be implemented

10.2 To the purpose of allowing the correct provision of the Services, the Client must observe the regular conditions of use of the Hardware and of the Third Party Software, as well as with any other recommendation given by Igloocy.

To the purpose of avoiding negative consequences (such as slow processing timing, blocks/damages, alteration of the Client's data or other unwanted consequences) the Client is responsible for the compliance with the Technical Prerequisites. Therefore, the Client recognizes that the non compliance with the Technical Prerequisites may exempt Igloocy from all or part of their contractual obligations toward the Client.

The Client is the sole responsible for all the means (tools, methods, configurations, etc…) used by the Client that are neither provided nor made available by Igloocy under the Agreement. The Client is also responsible for any possible issues originating from the incompatibility of the external products integrated by the Client with the items ordered under the Agreement ,and Igloocy is not liable for any possible malfunctioning or faults that may originate from practices that are not in compliance with the Technical Prerequisites. The Client recognizes that the employment of the Hardware and/or Software together with hardware, software or systems that are different from those recommended by Igloocy in the Technical Prerequisites may entail negative consequences (such as slow processing timing, blocks/damages, alteration of the Client's data or other unwanted consequences). It is, therefore, a responsibility of the client to ensure that the hardware and the software se are upgraded in order to be compliant with any possible changes made to the Technical Prerequisites.

The Client must communicate to Igloocy, via registered mail, any change they make to their hardware or operating system and, more generally, any change they make to their system in its whole.

Igloocy reserves the right to charge the Client the costs linked to any intervention that Igloocy will have to conduct in order to research the causes of any unexpected event deriving from deeds that are different (i) from those caused by Igloocy, or (ii) that are the result of the services that Igloocy provides.

10.3 The Client recognizes that they are responsible for any possible changes made to the installation of the products provided by Igloocy or to the environment in which such products are installed.

10.4 The Client recognizes that the introduction of new IT tools requires the preparation of technical structures, of work organization and of the Users. The Client declares to own the competences needed in order to use the Hardware and/or the Third Party Services and to having been fully informed by Igloocy regarding the necessary compliance with all the Technical Prerequisites.

ARTICLE 11 DEVELOPMENT

11.1 Hardware. The Client recognizes that the technological progress, the regulatory changes and the modifications to the requests of the customers might entail the updating of software packages or of the services provided by Igloocy, as a result of which, the Hardware and/or the Software or the Third Party Services, in their initial configuration, might not be able to support the software packages and/or the services offered by Igloocy anymore. When such circumstances present themselves, Igloocy, to the maximum extent allowed by law, declines any responsibility.

11.2 Third Party Software. Furthermore, the Client recognizes that the technological progress, the regulatory changes and the modifications to the requests of the customers might entail that the providers of Third Party Software might update them, which, in turn, might entail the updating of the Technical Prerequisites. As a consequence, the Client's equipment, in its initial configuration, might no longer support the upgrades of the Third Party Software. Should this circumstance occur, Igloocy, to the maximum extent allowed by law, declines any responsibility

ARTICLE 12 PRICES AND INVOICING

12.1 Prices. The prices are specified in the "Description of the Ordered Items" and in the "Order Form" or in the online order form. All the indicated prices are before VAT and other expenses, taxes, duties, fees, due to the Client as pursuant to the regulation in force on the date of the issuing of the invoice from Igloocy and are exclusively chargeable to the Client.

The cost of the communications between Igloocy and the Client outside of Italy are chargeable to the Client and will be the object of additional invoicing.

12.2 Invoicing. The Hardware, although containing Third Party Software will be invoiced on delivery.

12.3 Invoicing of the Services. The Services are invoiced according to the provisions set out in the "Order Form" or in the online order form and must be paid in advance annually, or quarterly or monthly. With reference to online orders, unless otherwise indicated in the Terms of Service, the Service will be invoiced in advance and monthly.

The first invoice for the services will be sent at the moment of delivery of the Hardware and Third Party Software from Cegid, since it is presumed that such delivery corresponds to the invoice date of the licensce pf use. Cegid will invoice the services on the basis of calendar periods (months, quarters, years) and not on the basis of anniversary periods. Where applicable, the first and/or the last invoice will be calculated on a pro rata basis. Without prejudice to what differently provided in the Order Forms and in the Terms of Service, should the amount of the services ordered by the Client amount to less than Euro 1.500 (euro one-thousand-five-hundred) a year (before taxes), Cegid reserves the right to invoice the price of the Service annually and in advance. Furthermore, should the Client accept the Services on the basis of different contracts, Cegid also reserves the right to issue a single invoice for all the services ordered under the Agreement, as well as for the Services ordered on the basis of other agreements entered into with the Client. The above mentioned invoice may be issued annually if the total amount of such invoices is less than Euro 1.500 (euro one-thousand-five-hundred) a year (before taxes)

If the Client has entered several agreements with Cegid and two or more agreements have different invoicing periods, Cegid reserves the right to invoice jointly the Services provided by all the agreements with a single invoicing period, with the understanding that the single invoicing period must correspond with the invoicing period of the agreement the amount (in Euro) of which is higher.

The provisions of this article will be applied to all the Services, with the exception of the Services (i) with variable payment schemes that are invoiced in arrears and monthly, or (ii) regulated by Terms of Service which provide personalized payment agreements.

12.4 Price adjustment. Any price adjustment will be formalized to the Client, who will have 10 (ten) days to accept. In case of missing acceptance, the customer will be discharged and Igloocy will be only due the payment accrued until the date of the termination of the agreement.

ARTICLE 13 PAYMENT

13.1 Payment of the Hardware and Third Party Software

The Client will have to pay Igloocy, upon signing the Agreement, via bank transfer or direct debit, the total amount due for the ordered articles. In reference to the online order, the Client will have to pay the moment the order is placed.

13.2 Payment of the Services

All the amounts due to Igloocy in relation to the Services (including Services orderd online) will have to be paid by the Client after the confirmation of the quotation or of the order form, via direct debit, in advance, and according to the modalities communicated during the order request and/or the quotation stage.

13.3 Uses of the Client

If the Client wishes that, for the payment of the invoices issued under the Agreement, Igloocy complies with particular modalities the Client uses (for example, inserting a particular reference on each single invoice, or the implementation of a particular communication process related to such invoices, etc.), the Client must communicate to Igloocy such peculiarities before entering into the Agreement, so that Igloocy might take such requests into account and potentially include such particular provisions within the scope of specific general conditions of the Agreement. The lack of such communication of the Client to Igloocy before entering into the Agreement will not constitute a reason for missing or delayed payments, from the Client, of the invoices due to Igloocy.

13.4 Missing payment

In case of missing payment, from the Client, of the sums due to Igloocy, after 15 (fifteen) days of sending, via registered mail or certified electronic mail, a warning to abide (in case the Client does not pay either fully or partially upon receipt of such warning), Igloocy shall be entitled to immediately suspend the right of the Customer to use the Hardware and/or the Third Party Software, as well as any other service existing up until the payment of the entire due amount and/or to terminate the Agreement de jure without the need for any further formal communications, without prejudice to any other means Igloocy might employ against the Client in order to obtain a compensation for the damage suffered as a consequence of the non-fulfillment, .

Furthermore, Igloocy will be able to apply overdue interest amounting to 3 (three) times the legal interest rate in force in Italy, without the need for any previous payment reminder or formal warning. Interest will be calculated for each day of delay from the first until the day of the full payment from the Client. As pursuant to article 1 of Lgs. D. 9 October 2002, n. 231 implementing Regulation 2000/35/CE, as amended by Lgs. D. 9 November 2012, n. 192, The Client is, moreover, required to pay a fixed amount of euro 40 (forty) for the costs incurred by Igloocy for the recovery of the sums that were not promptly paid by the Client. Should the collection costs overrun the amount due for the delay, Igloocy will be able to require the Client to pay a further compensation upon presentation of evidential documents of the activities conducted. Such compensation will not be due if the Client demonstrates to be subject to liquidation or insolvency procedures.

The missing payment, from the Client, of an overdue invoice gives Igloocy the right to demand the payment of all the other invoices in effect, even if not yet due.

All the expenses incurred by Igloocy because of the refusal of the Client's bank to pay the amounts due from the Client to Igloocy, will be chargeable to the Client.

13.5 General

Igloocy reserves the right to decide the attribution of the partial payments made by the Client, to the amounts due from the Client to Igloocy.

The Client will not be allowed to implement any set-off with the amounts due to them by Igloocy under this Agreement, or any other agreement in force between the Parties, without prior consent from Igloocy.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 14 CLIENT'S DATA AND SAFETY

The provisions related the protection and safety of Personal Data are reported in the Attachment "Personal Data Protection Policy". The Client is responsible for the adoption of all the necessary measure to (i) guarantee the safety, the confidentiality and the integrity of all the Client's Data involved directly or indirectly during the employment of the Hardware, of the Third Party Software or of the Service and to (ii) ensure the prompt implementation of all the necessary measures for the backup and the recovery of the Client's Data. In this regard, the Client is the sole responsible of the backup of the Client's Data and recognizes that it is a responsibility of the Client to:

- Create copies of the backup of the Client's data during every phase of the operation of the project, with a frequency that is regular and adequate to their commercial activity; and
- To regularly verify the content of the backups conducted.

Before any intervention from Igloocy, the Client commits to create a backup of all the Client's data. The Client will also have to adopt all the necessary measures to protect their IT system, even against viruses, worms and other hostile intrusion systems.
The operations of recovery or reconstruction of the Client's Data, of lost or damaged programs or files, fall outside the object of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 15. COLLABORATION

The exact fulfillment of the Agreement and the proper provision of the Service entail an active and constant bona fide collaboration between the Parties. Therefore, each Party must:
- Actively work toward the fulfillment of the obligations deriving from the Agreement;
- Abstain from any behavior that might compromise and/or hinder the fulfillment of the obligation of the other Party;
- Provide, within a date set in agreement with the other Party, all the information and all the documents necessary to the operation of the Agreement; and
- Notify the other Party as soon as possible in case of difficulties, and agree on the best solution within the shortest possible time.

The Parties will meet with the frequency needed in order to guarantee the proper implementation of the Agreement and also to verify the exact and correct provision of the Service.
In particular, the Client is responsible for the communication to Igloocy of (i) all the information related to the Client that is needed for the proper provision of the Services offered and (ii) of any possible difficulties that come into their knowledge or any difficulties that are reasonably predictable during the operation of the Services by reason of the knowledge that the Client has regarding their activity sector.
Furthermore, the Client will take advantage of competent, qualified and trained Users for the whole duration of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 16 RESPONSIBILITY – INSURANCE

16.1 Responsibility

The obbligation of Igloocy to fulfil all the obligation according to the best professional standards and using the maximum possible diligence, is an obligation of means.
To the maximum extent allowed by law, Igloocy is responsible solely for direct and predictable damages deriving from a violation of its contractual obligations; the responsibility of Igloocy does not extend to the damages deriving from an event that is not strictly linked to the defective or missing implementation of the Agreement. By expressed agreement between the Parties, the indirect damages for which Igloocy might not be held liable include: operational loss, missing profit or any other financial loss deriving from the employment or from the impossibility, for the Client, to use the Hardware or the Third Party Software, or from the missing provision of the Services, from the reputation damage and any other loss or damage to the information for which Cegid may not be deemed responsible. Any possible damages suffered by third parties constitute an indirect damage and do not lead to compensation.

Should Igloocy be held liable following the missing or incorrect implementation of the Agreement, or for any other cause ascribable to it, the Client will be eligible for a compensation, the total amount of which, (capital, interest and charges) will be limited to the direct and predictable damages suffered by the Client and that, in any case, cannot be higher than the amounts paid by the Client in the 12 (twelve) months prior to the occurrence of the damaging event related to the object (Hardware, Software or Service) that has determined the responsibility of Igloocy. Igloocy may not be held responsible for the missing operation of the hardware device if the cause of the missing operation is linked to external factors or to the missing provision of external services the Hardware object of the sale need (for example: an interruption of the internet service provider, missing and/or delayed third party software upgrades, disruption of the providers employed by the Client, interruptions in the electric and energy systems etc…)

The Parties recognize that the prices of the Agreement reflect the partition of the risks provided in the Agreement and the economic configuration pursued by the Parties, and that the Agreement would have never come into being at the present conditions without the responsibility limitations provided in it. The Parties expressly agree that the aforementioned limitations of responsibility will remain valid even after the termination of the Agreement.

16.2 Insurance

Igloocy commits to maintain in force an insurance policy for professional liability to cover the damages that might occur during the operation of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 17. GUARANTEE

Pursuant to Lgs. D. 206/2005 ("Consumers' code") all the products ("Products") sold via remote retailing by Igloocy srl, or online, through the website: www.store.atomapp.cloud ("Website"), are covered by a warranty of:

- 24 (twenty-four) months from the moment of the supply or the delivery of the Product if you are a Consumer, as defined below (" Legal Guarantee");
- 12 (twelve) months from the moment of the supply or of the delivery of the Product if you are not a Consumer, as defined below. In such case, the guarantee may be enforced only if the fault is reported within 8 days from the discovery of it

Remedies in case of Legal Guarantee

On the basis of the Legal Guarantee, Igloocy srl is responsible toward the consumer (that is, the natural person who acts for purposes that are unrelated to the entrepreneurial, commercial, craft or professional activity possibly conducted, from now on referred to as "Consumer") for any Conformity Faults, as defined below, of the Products purchased by the latter.

A Conformity Faults subsists when:

a) the Product is not in conformity with the sales agreement; b) the Product does not satisfy the conditions as pursuant to art. 129, par. 3, and 135, par 5, of the Consumers Code; c) An erroneous installation or integration of the Product was conducted, where integration and installation are provided by the agreement; d) There is a missing or incomplete update of the Product, if provided by the agreement.

The action of the Consumer, in order to enforce a Conformity Fault that has not been maliciously hidden by Igloocy srl, carries a statute of limitation of 26 (twenty-six) months from the moment of the supply or of the delivery of the Product. Unless proved otherwise, it is assumed that the Conformity Faults which show within 12 (twelve) months from the delivery or the supply of the Product, already existed on that date. In case of Conformity Fault, the Consumer is entitled to the restoration of the conformity of the Product through substitution or through remedial action. The Consumer is also entitled, at their own discretion, to ask Igloocy to restore the Product or substitute it, without any expense in either case, unless the required remedy is impossible or overly onerous compared to the other one, considering all the circumstances of the case. Remedial actions or substitutions must be conducted within an appropriate time limit from the moment Igloocy was informed by the Consumer of the Conformity Fault. Unless the Product consists of content or a digital service, as defined in the Consumers Code, the Consumer will be obliged to provide the Product to Igloocy. Once the Consumer will have provided the above mentioned Product to be fixed or substituted to Igloocy, the company will proceed to collect the Product at their own expenses and to redeliver it to the Consumer after such activities will have been conducted. Igloocy srl will send the Product to the technical service center, authorized by the manufacturer of the related Product, for any possible remedial actions. In case of enforcement of the Legal Guarantee for purchases made through the website, the Product can be returned according to the modalities of the subsequent section "Modalities of enforcement of the Legal Guarantee for online purchases".

If, within a proper time limit from the moment Igloocy srl has been informed by the Consumer of the Conformity Fault, MediaWorld is not able to substitute or redeliver the fixed Product, or should it not be possible to accomplish such remedies as pursuant to the Consumers Code, the Consumer will be able to terminate the sales agreement (by sending a proper written communication to Igloocy srl at the following e-mail addresses: support@atomapp.cloud PEC(certified e-mail) igloocy@legalmail.it or to require a reduction on the price of the purchased Product.

With reference to the Products, the Consumer shall guarantee that the same: i) are suitable for the purposes for which they intend to purchase them; ii) are of the quantity and show the quality and performance characteristics, even in reference to the durability, functionality, compatibility, accessibility, continuity and safety that are normally found in products of the same kind; ; iii) that they do not expect to receive, from Igloocy srl, any further accessories (including, by way of example but not limited to, the packaging) and/or instruction (including, by way of example but not limited to, those related to the installation) other than those that are normally provided as pursuant to the sales agreement; iv) should they not consider the Products compliant with the trial version, or with a sample or model provided by Igloocy srl before the signing of the sales contract, the Consumer will have to promptly let Igloocy know by sending an email to the following addresses: :support@atomapp.cloud   PEC (certified e-mail) igloocy@legalmail.it

The Client is expected to hold Igloocy harmless from any action of third parties related to Igloocy employing any software or software package that the Client has provided Igloocy under the Agreement. In this respect, the Client will have to compensate all the damages suffered by Igloocy. To the maximum extent provided by law, all the other guarantees that are different from those indicated in this article are expressly excluded.

ARTICLE 18. TERMINATION

18.1 Termination of the Agreement for non-fulfillment

Without prejudice to the other rights and means of protection provided by the Agreement, each Party can terminate the Agreement for essential non-fulfillment of the other Party.

The termination of the Agreement will produce its effects 3 (three) months after the non-fulfilling Party has received a registered mail containing the details of the non-fulfillment, unless the non-fulfilling Party proves that they have provided remedy to their non-fulfillment before the due date of the aforementioned period of notice.

18.3 Effect of the termination

In case of termination for non-fulfillment of the Client, the latter will have to pay Igloocy (i) the amounts of any possible invoices in place on the date of the termination, and (ii) a compensation amounting to all the monthly payment that have not yet been invoiced, for the Service, until the expiry date of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 19. FORCE MAJEURE

The Parties will not be held responsible for any delays or non-fulfillments in the performance of the agreement if these have occurred because of force majeure or unforeseeable circumstances as per articles 1218 and 1256 of the Civil Code. The Parties agree that, as per this article, the following events constitute force majeure: total or partial strikes internal or external to Igloocy; transport blocks for any reasons; liquidation one of the suppliers or subcontractors and unavailability or interruption of the means of communication, of the telecommunications or of the postal services.

Upon occurrence of one of the aforementioned events, the Party invoking force majeure commits to promptly communicate to the other party, via registered post, the occurrence of such event and to require an extension of the term for the implementation of their obligations.

If the impediment is temporary, the term for the fulfillment of the obligation is suspended until the party invoking this provision is no longer subject to the effects of the event of force majeure. The Party invoking this provision will have to keep the other Party informed and will have to make any effort in order to limit the duration of the suspension. Should the suspension continue for a period longer than 3 (three) months, each Party will be free to terminate the Agreement. Should the impediment be permanent, the Parties are free of their obligation at the conditions provided by article 1256 of the Civil Code. .

ARTICLE 20 CONFIDENTIALITY

All the documents, data (including the Client's Data), the products and/or the know-how, regardless of the existence of a protection provided by the laws on intellectual property and regardless of their form or nature (commercial, industrial, technical, financial, etc…), disclosed by one Party (the "Disclosing Party") to the other Party (the "Recipient"), or that are already known to each of the Parties during the performance of the agreement, including, by way of example, the terms and conditions of the Agreement, will be considered confidential (the "Confidential Information") .

Confidential Information does not include information that: (i) was held by the Recipient before its disclosure by the Disclosing Party, unless such holding of information was the result of an unauthorized disclosure of the information by third parties, (ii) is public on the date of the acceptance of the Agreement, or that is made public subsequently to such date, unless they have been made public through a violation, of the Recipient, of their obligation of confidentiality as pursuant to the Agreement, or (iii) are regularly and legally acquired by the Recipient regardless of the Agreement.

The Recipient will abstain from using the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party for purposes that are different from those related to the performance of the Agreement, to the purpose of protecting the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party and of not disclosing the information to third parties that are not their employees, subsidiaries or subcontractors that need to come into their knowledge to the purpose of the Agreement, without prior written consent from the Disclosing Party. The Parties will adopt all the necessary measures in order to guarantee that their employees, subsidiaries and subcontractors that have access to the Confidential Information are aware of the confidential nature of the Confidential Information and that they comply with the obligations as pursuant to this article.

As an exception to the above, the Recipient can disclose the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party if commanded by the provision of a Court, or o fan Administrative Authority, or of any other public Entity; to the condition, however, that the Recipient, unless it is forbidden by law, provides the Disclosing Party with a notice that is sufficient to allow the Disclosing Party to request a precautionary measure or a similar remedy. The Recipient will limit the disclosure as, pursuant to this paragraph, to the part of the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party that they reasonably believe they must disclose.

Any possible non-fulfillment of the Recipient of the obligations as per this article will complete an essential non-fulfillment of their obligations for which the Recipient will be fully responsible and will hold the Disclosing Party harmless for the damage suffered.

The Parties commit to fulfill the obligations as pursuant to this article for the entire duration of the Agreement and for a period of 5 (five) years from the termination or the expiration of the Agreement.

To this purpose, once the Agreement is expired or terminated, each Party will return to the other Party all the documents containing Confidential Information and guarantees, to the other Party, that they will see to the destruction of all the Confidential Information in their possession. In no case will any of the Parties be allowed to keep a copy of documents containing Confidential Information, unless there is a previous written consent of the other Party.

ARTICLE 21 SUBCONTRACT

The Client accepts that Igloocy can freely, without any prior official document, subcontract some or all of their obligations deriving from the Agreement. In case of subcontract, Igloocy remains the sole responsible for the subcontractors fulfilling the obligations imposed by the Agreement.

The Parties agree that the provisions related to the sub-managers as pursuant to the Applicable Regulations are inserted in the Attachment "Personal Data Protection Policy".

ARTICLE 22. TRANSFER

The Client can transfer all or in part, in return for a fee or free of charge, the Agreement, including the rights and obligations provided in it, prior written consent of Igloocy.

As pursuant to article 1407 of the Civil Code, Igloocy can freely transfer or assign the Agreement, including the rights and obligations provided within. Upon expressing consent or following the notification, that is, upon acceptance of the transfer by the Client, Igloocy will be free of any obligation deriving from the Agreement and will not be held jointly and severally liable for the implementation of the Agreement by the assignee.

ARTICLE 23. MISCELLANEAOUS

23.1 Independence of the Parties

The Parties are independent of each other and will operate consequently. Any constitution of agencies, association, partnership or joint ventures is excluded.

Each of the Parties will not take on any obligations or bear any burdens or expenses for an on behalf of the other Party.

23.2 Entire agreement

The Parties recognize that the Agreement, together with all the other conditions incorporated within for reference, contains all the conditions agreed between the parties regarding the object of the Agreement and substitutes all the previous commitment, whether written or oral, between the Parties regarding the object of the Agreement. The Agreement prevails on any other document, including all the general conditions of sale of the Client.

23.3 Changes

The Agreement can be changed only in writing and with the subscription of representatives that have been duly authorized by the Parties.

The Parties have assessed the risks linked to the performance of the Agreement, which they accept, and they renounce any renegotiation of the conditions, regardless of the circumstances. It is therefore expressly agreed between the Parties that the application of article of the Civil Code is excluded.

23.4 Headings

The heading of the Agreement are reported solely for the purpose of easing the reading of the contractual documents. Should the heading of a paragraph or of an article or of a contractual document alter the understanding of the text, reference shall be made to the text of the paragraph or of the article, not to its heading.

23.5 Partial nullity

Should any provision of the Agreement, or its application to any person or circumstance be, in any measure, invalid or inapplicable, this shall not affect the remaining part of the Agreement or its application to any person or circumstance that are different from those affected by the invalidity or inapplicability. Any other provision of the Agreement will remain valid and applied to the maximum extent allowed by law.

23.6 No waiver clause

The missing exercise of a right by one of the Parties, as pursuant to the Agreement, must not be interpreted as a waiver of such right and it does not impair the right of that Party to exercise that right later on.

23.7 Know-how

Each Party remains the owner of the know-how they have available regardless of the Agreement or of the know-how they can acquire during the performance of the Agreement, and they remain free to use it. Igloocy is free to provide similar services on behalf of other clients. None of the Parties may lay claim on the know-how of the other Party.

23.8 Commercial Reference

The Client authorizes Igloocy to freely mention the name of the Client and to use and/or reproduce the logo and/or the Trademarks of the Client as a commercial reference in commercial documents and press announcements, in any form, on any support and on documents used and/or prepared by Igloocy within the scope of the Agreement.

23.9 Conformity

The Client declares that they shall not undertake any activity, whether practical or conducted, which might contain a crime as pursuant to the laws and regulations applicable on the matter of ethics and anti-corruption, including, by way of example, Lgs. D. 8 June 2001, n. 231, the OCSE Convention, the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA) and the UK Bribery Act 2010 (Bribery Act) and will not allow any of their subsidiaries or affiliated companies or any of the respective administrators, managers, directors, employees, contractors, representatives or agents, to implement the aforementioned practices or conducts.

The Client declares, in particular, that they will not use the company funds for donations, gifts, presents or other illegal expenses related to political activity, and they will not offer or authorize any unlawful payments to public employees or officers, whether National or foreign, directly or indirectly; and they will not make, offer or authorize, directly or indirectly, any bribes, reimbursements, payments, traffic of unlawful influences, undue payments or other unlawful payments, whether directly or indirectly.

Should the Client learn of a violation of this article, they must inform Igloocy within 24 (twenty-four) hours from the moment in which they have learned of such violation.

23.10 Export

The Client commits to precisely comply with the laws in force on the matter of control of the export, by way of example, in Italy, in the United Kingdom, in the European Union and in the Extra EU countries.

ARTICLE 24. APPLICABLE LAW AND JURISDICTION

The agreement is regulated by the Italian Law, for what concerns both the formal and the substantial regulations. In lack of an amicable settlement of the dispute, the parties will refer to the Court of Benevento, which has exclusive jurisdiction, regardless of the types of defendants or of the enforcement of third parties guarantees, even for urgent and cautionary proceedings.

Agreement Language

The Parties declare that they know and understand that the Agreement and all the documents related to it are originally written in Italian. There can be translated versions of this Agreement available. Should any inconsistencies or contradictions be found between the Italian version of this Agreement and its translated versions, the Italian version will prevail.

ATTACHMENT "Persona Data Protection Policy (excluding the SaaS services)

This Attachment is applied to the treatment of Personal Data conducted in performance or anyway within the scope of the Agreement regulating the relationship between Igloocy and the Client.

It is agreed that this Attachment is added and completes what provided within the Agreement

1.   General Principles:

1.1   In application of the Applicable Regulation within the scope of the Agreement:
- The Client is the owner of the treatment of the Personal Data;
- Cegid is responsible for the treatment of the Personal Data, treating the data exclusively on behalf of the Client and on the basis of documented guidelines of the Client.

1.2   The Parties recognize that what is regulated within the Agreement constitutes the documented guidelines of the Client.

Any additional guideline regarding the treatment of persona data from Igloocy must be provided in written form. Should additional guidelines be necessary in view of the need and/or will to create a new treatment, the purpose will have to be specified and the operations to be implemented will have to be indicated. The additional treatment will be implemented only when the quotation of Igloocy will be accepted by the Client.

If, according to the evaluation from Igloocy, a guideline violates the Applicable Regulations, Igloocy resolves to inform the Client, with any means, within 5 (five) days of the date of receipt of the guideline. The Client recognizes to have exclusive control and knowledge, in particular, of the origin of the Personal Data treated for the implementation of the Agreement.

1.3   Igloocy will delete or return, by choice of the Owner, the Persona Data, its copies at the moment of the termination of the Service or of the Agreement, unless any of the Applicable Regulations requires the storage of the Personal Data.

1.4   The Client must give Igloocy, at the moment they sign the Agreement, the name of the person to contact for any information, communication, notification or request on the basis of this Attachment. If the Client does not provide this information to Igloocy, the signer will be considered the contact person for the implementation of the Agreement.

1.5   Should it become strictly necessary to the implementation of the Agreement, Igloocy will be allowed to transfer the Personal Data at the condition that the Client is previously informed regarding such transfer. In any case, Igloocy will not transfer Personal Data without adopting the necessary safeguard measures in application of article 46 of the GDPR outside::

-          The European Union;

-          The European Economic Area;

-          A third country or territory that, according to the European Commission grants an adequate level of protection in application of the applicable regulations, including companies that have their Headquarters in the United States of America, certified according to the "Privacy-Shield" regime.

In any case, the Personal Data entrusted with the care of Igloocy are located within one or more states of the European Union.

2.   Safety of Personal Data

2.1   As pursuant to article 32(1) of the GDPR, the Client and Igloocy commit to adopt adequate technical and organizational measures in order to grant a level of safety that is adequate to the risk. The measures adopted by Igloocy are listed in a document illustrating the safeguard measures, the latest version of which is provided to the Client upon request

2.2   Igloocy assicura che le persone incaricate del trattamento dei Dati Personali hanno assunto idonei obblighi di riservatezza.

3.   Collaboration with the Client

3.1   Igloocy will communicate to the Client, without any undue delay, the receipt of any possible requests, investigations or notification, whether from authorities or interested subjects, regarding the treatment of the data conducted on behalf of the Client.

As the owner of the treatment, the Client holds the responsibility to provide the interested party with the answer, and Igloocy will not respond to such requests; however, taking into account the nature of the treatment of the Personal Data, Igloocy commits, through adequate technical and organizational measures, to assist the Client in the fulfillment of their obligations regarding the answer to such requests as much as possible.

3.2   Upon written request, Igloocy provides the Client, at the expenses of the Client, all the useful information in their possession, to the purpose of helping the Client, as the owner of the treatment of the data, in satisfying the provisions of the Applicable Regulations related to the evaluation of the impact on the Protection of Personal Data conducted by the Client, to the preventive consultation before the competent control authority that might derive from it, to the preparation of adequate technical and organizational measures and to the notification of a violation of personal data to the competent control authority or to the interested party.

4. Notification of the violation of the data

4.1.   Igloocy will inform the Client, without any undue delay, of any violation to the safety that might entail the destruction, whether accidental or unlawful, the loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure or the access to the Personal Data transmitted, memorized or otherwise treated (the "Violation of the Data")

4.2.   Igloocy will provide the Client, without any undue delay regarding the notification of the Violation of the Data, where possible, the following information:

- The categories and the approximate number of the interested parties involved;

- The categories and the approximate number of recording of Personal Data;
- The description of the possible consequences of the violation of the Personal Data;
- The description of the measures adopted or proposed by Igloocy in order to face the violation of the data, including, where appropriate, the measures to ease their possible damaging effects.

5. Sub-managers

5.1 Igloocy may entrust sub-managers with the treatment of Personal Data only in cases in which it is strictly necessary to the performance of the Agreement.

5.2. Igloocy commits, in any case, to choose sub-managers that provide enough guarantees to implement adequate technical and organizational measures so that the treatment satisfies the prerequisites of the Applicable Regulations.

5.3. Igloocy will impose their sub-managers, on the basis o fan agreement, some obbligations on the matter of personal data protection, that are at least equivalent to those provided in the Agreeemnt and in the Applicable Regulations. Igloocy shall remain fully responsible toward the Client for the sub-manager fulfilling their obligations.

5.4. Igloocy can entrust only one sub-manager that:
- Is located in one of the European Union member States or in the European Economic Area or;
- Is located in the United States of America and holds a Privacy Shield certification, or;
- Offers one of the adequate safeguard measures in application of article 46 of the GDPR.

5.5. Upon written request, the list of the sub-managers of Igloocy will be provided. Igloocy commits to inform the Client of any possible integrations or substitutions of sub-managers in the shortest time possible. This information represents the information to the Client as pursuant to Article 1.6.

The Client holds the right to object in writing to such integration or substitution within 10 (ten) working days of receiving the information.

The absence of objections from the Client, after this deadline, entails the acceptance of the sub-manager.

In case of objection from the Client, Igloocy can provide the Client elements that might fail the objections. Should the Client reiterate their objections, the Parties commit to discuss amicably in order to the continuation of the Agreement.

6. Compliance and check

Upon request, Igloocy will send the Client, via e-mail, any document that is necessary to prove the fulfillment of the obligations of Igloocy as the subject responsible of the treatment. Any other modality for the submission of such documents will be at the expense of the Client.

The Client can ask for further clarifications from Igloocy, should the provided document not allow the Client to verify the compliance of Igloocy with the obligations undertaken under the Agreement as the subject responsible for the treatment. In such case, the Client must present a written request to Igloocy, through registered mail with return receipt, giving the reason for the request of further clarification. Igloocy commits to reply as soon as possible.

If the Client, despite the answer from Igloocy, questions the truthfulness or the completeness of the information transmitted, or in case of imminent risks for the safety of the Personal Data, the Client can conduct an onsite check, whilst respecting the following conditions:

(i) The Client presents a written request for an onsite check to Igloocy, through registered mail with return receipt, giving the reason and documenting their request;

(ii) Igloocy commits to provide an answer for the Client within the scope and the conditions of the onsite check. Since the safety of the information system and of the data center of Igloocy is based on their limited access, the scope of the onsite check will be limited to the treatments that allow Igloocy to manage the Service and/or the conduction of the contractual obligation as the subject responsible for the Personal Data given to

Igloocy from the Client. The check shall not last longer than 2 (two) working days, which will be billed by Igloocy to the Client at the fees in force at the moment of the check;

(iii)   Such check can be conducted by the internal auditors of the Client or can be given to any other provider of services chosen by the Client, given they are not competitors of Igloocy;

(iv)   The auditors must expressly commit to not disclose the information gathered at Igloocy's, regardless of how they have been obtained. The auditors must subscribe a non-disclosure agreement which shall be transmitted to Igloocy before the check is conducted.

It is understood that such check must not compromise the operation of the Service and/or the conduction of the contractual obligations.

The auditors shall provide Igloocy with the report of the check before closing it, so that Igloocy can express some observations. The final report will have to take into account and respond to the aforementioned observations. The check report will, therefore, be sent to Igloocy and will be object of discussion within a meeting between the Parties.

Should the check report reveal a violation of the obligations undertaken in relation to the Service and/or to the contractual obligations, Igloocy shall propose a plan of corrective actions within 20 (twenty) working days from the day of the meeting between the Parties.

To the purpose of this clause, by "working day" is intended a day between Monday and Friday that is not a bank holiday in Italy.

With the exception of changes in circumstances and events that might justify the conduction of a check within a shorter term, the checks can be conducted by the Client at Igloocy's premises only once during the Agreement's Initial period.

7. Description of the treatment

The nature of the operations conducted on Personal Data, the purposes of the treatment, the Personal Data Treatment, the category of interested parties and the duration of the treatment are described in the specific document available on the online portal of the Client.
